

ETR's Summer Training Institute • July 26-29, 2006

Panel Presenter Application

Applicant Name: _____ Title: _____

School/Organization Name: _____ City, State: _____

Phone Number: _____ Email: _____

Which curriculum(a) have you taught? (check all that apply):

Reducing the Risk BART Keepin' It REAL TimeWise

On which curriculum are you interested in presenting your experience? (check one):

Reducing the Risk BART Keepin' It REAL TimeWise

Please answer the following questions to give us a picture of your experience teaching the curriculum.

1. Briefly describe the community(ies) in which you have taught the curriculum (e.g. rural, primarily African-American and Latino, a religiously conservative suburb, etc).
2. Briefly describe the youth and the setting in which you've taught the curriculum (e.g. academically oriented youth in after school program, girls ages 13-16 years old in a private school, etc.).
3. Describe your experience teaching the curriculum, including how long and how often you have taught it.
4. How have you taught the curriculum to address the unique needs/perspectives of your youth?
5. Describe how closely you have followed the curriculum as it is written.
6. How many lessons of the curriculum did you usually teach? And to how many youth?
7. Is there something specific you want to share about the curriculum or your experience with the curriculum?

Send this application by March 15, 2006 to Regina Firpo-Triplett at Email: reginaf@etr.org
FAX: 831-439-9651 Mail: ETR, 4 Carbonero Way, Scotts Valley, CA 95066