

California Casino News

April 15-28, 2019

New Harrah's Casino Set to Open in Lone

You wouldn't know it by looking at the outside, but Northern California's newest casino is just two weeks away from opening its doors. Nestled in the Amador foothills, the new Harrah's Northern California casino is a partnership between the Buena Vista Rancheria Me-Wuk tribe and Cesar's entertainment.

Hard Rock Hotel & Casino At Fire Mountain Names New Executive Leaders

Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Sacramento at Fire Mountain, slated to become the premier entertainment destination in Northern California once open in fall of 2019, announces its team of top-tier executives.

Thunder Valley betting on laundry to impact those with disabilities

Thunder Valley Hotel and Casino recently installed a 6,000-square-foot in-house laundry facility that can process more than 1,000 pounds of laundry every hour. "This is huge. Previously we were trucking all our laundry to a facility 90 miles away in Napa and this switch allows us to keep the laundry in-house and offers much greater quality control," Thunder Valley's vice president of hotel operations, Joel Moore, said.

Massive hotel-casino project one step closer to groundbreaking in Kern County

Plans for a giant casino -- as big as three football fields -- and the largest hotel in Kern County, just south of Bakersfield, are a step closer to completion. The Tejon Indian Tribe Trust Acquisition and Casino Project Scoping Report details the massive hotel-casino project planned for Kern County. The empty land is 14 miles south of Bakersfield that could become an entertainment hub for Kern County.

Sycuan's new resort worth waiting for

Some things are worth waiting for. Take the gleaming, new Sycuan Casino Resort, which took two years to build but was 36 years in the making. In 1983, the Sycuan Bingo Palace ushered in tribal gaming to the San Diego region. Now, Sycuan has become the latest, if not the last, to open a Las Vegas-style casino hotel and resort, joining Barona Resort & Casino, Harrah's Resort Southern California, Pala Casino Spa & Resort, Pechanga Resort & Casino, Valley View Casino Hotel and Viejas Casino & Resort.