

San Manuel Casino reveals expanded gaming area, restaurant and shops opening in July

Click here to view article

The first phase of San Manuel Casino's expansion will open in July with a larger gaming floor, a new high limit room, a new restaurant and three new shops.

The $550 million expansion, which began construction in 2018, is the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians' largest since the current casino facility opened in Highland in 2005. Future phases include a 17-story hotel opening later this year and a 2,800-seat events center in early 2022.

Palms Casino Sold to San Manuel Band of Mission Indians

As we reported days ago, Palms Casino has reportedly been sold. Now, we can share who's buying: The San Manuel Band of Mission Indians.

San Manuel runs an wildly successful casino in Southern California, but this is the first time the tribe has undertaken a venture in Las Vegas.

Click here to view article

California Governor Newsom signs new tribal-state gaming compact for Santa Rosa Rancheria Tachi Yokut Tribe

Click here to view article

The Santa Rosa Rancheria Tachi Yokut Tribe is pleased to announce Governor Newsom's signature of a new tribal-state gaming compact between the State of California and the Santa Rosa Rancheria.