

California Casino News

August 10-16, 2020

Tolowa Dee-ni' Nation's Updated Gaming Compact With State Receives County Support

The Tolowa Dee-ni' Nation's efforts to ratify a new gaming compact with the state received support from Del Norte County supervisors on Tuesday. The new Tribal-State Gaming Compact between the Tolowa Dee-ni' Nation, which operates Lucky 7 Casino, and the State of California – SB 869 – allows the ability to offer off-track wagering to its patrons.

Click here to view article

Sycuan Updates Its Face Covering Policy

Click here to view article

Effective this Friday, August 14 at 7AM, bandanas, gaiters and face coverings with valves are no longer allowed as viable face covering options. Please make sure to have an approved face covering on your next visit with us.

Tule Tribe casino will be coming down the mountain

The 20,000-square foot convention space, 9,000-square foot divisible ballroom, and other breakout rooms, will make the proposed project ideal for conferences, conventions, and other business events.

Click here to view article