Governor Gavin Newsom today announced that he has signed tribal-state gaming compacts between the State of California and the Cahto Tribe of the Laytonville Rancheria, the Ewiiapaayp Band of Kumeyaay Indians, the Picayune Rancheria of Chukchansi Indians, the Resighini Rancheria, the Sherwood Valley Rancheria of Pomo Indians and the Table Mountain Rancheria.

Cache Creek casino delays grand opening due to Covid-19 cases surge

The Yocha Dehe Wintun Nation and Cache Creek Casino Resort executive leadership have decided to delay opening plans for the completed resort expansion scheduled in September "out of an abundance of caution," announced both parties on Wednesday.

The announcement follows a surge in COVID-19 cases in Northern California and also implies concerts and opening events will be postponed as a result of the measure "until further notice," according to a press release.
