

California Casino News

August 25- September 6, 2020

Pechanga Casino enacts stricter COVID-19 rules

Pechanga Resort Casino in Temecula announced stricter coronavirus safety measures related to face coverings. Beginning September 1st, patrons will no longer be able to satisfy the casino's face covering requirement by wearing bandanas, neck gaiters, balaclavas and face masks with vents or valves, according to a news release.

Click here to view article

California Supreme Court clears way for North Fork Rancheria casino plans

Click here to view article

Nearly two decades in the making, the California Supreme Court on Monday cleared the way for plans to build a casino in Madera County. The Court ruled that former Gov. Jerry Brown “acted within his authority when he concurred in a pair of federal decisions in 2011 that led to the approval of two so-called ‘off-reservation’ tribal gaming projects in Madera and Yuba counties.”

Casinos Increasingly Demand Visitors Wear Only Cloth or Surgical Masks to Curb COVID-19 Spread

Two California gaming properties are among the latest venues which will restrict players to wear only cloth or surgical masks to cover their faces while on the gaming floor to prevent the spread of coronavirus.

Click here to view article

GM's memo to casino employees doesn't tell the whole story

Click here to view article

The memo by Jill Barrett, interim general manager of Harrah's Resort Southern California, to staff announcing a reduction in numbers of employees and changing benefits for furloughed employees—that was reported in last week's Roadrunner—told a story. But, says Rincon Tribal Chairman Bo Mazzetti, it doesn't tell the whole story.

A Statement from Chairwoman Erica M. Pinto, Jamul Indian Village: An update Covid-19 health safety

In our on-going efforts to maintain a safe environment, we continue to meet with our health and safety team experts and discuss new ways we can improve and work harder to ensure that safety first happens on the reservation.

Click here to view article