

California Casino News

January 13-19, 2020

Tulare County, Tule tribe reach agreement on casino move

Click here to view article

The Tulare County Board of Supervisors and the Tule River tribe have entered an agreement to pay for roadway improvements and to mitigate the county's public safety costs should Eagle Mountain Casino relocate from tribal land to within the Porterville city limits.

Wilton Rancheria Said its Elk Grove Casino Will Open Later Than Planned

Wilton Rancheria's plan to open the first tribal gaming property in Sacramento County, Calif. will have to wait a while longer than previously hoped because of plans to redesign some parts of the venue.

Click here to view article