

California Casino News

July 26-August 15, 2021

Tribe breaks ground on 1.1-million-square-foot project next to airport

Click here to view article

The San Manuel Bird Singers on Friday, July 23, helped celebrate the groundbreaking of the San Manuel Landing, a 1.1 million-square-foot state-of-the-art commercial center, and supply and logistics facility planned on more than 50 acres at Victoria Avenue and Third Street near Highland.

Calif., Tribes Duel Over Keeping Gaming Compact Suits Alive

California Gov. Gavin Newsom and four tribes are sparring over whether a California federal judge should dismiss four separate, but parallel, disputes over the state allegedly negotiating gaming compacts in bad faith.

Click here to view article

New Casino, Hotel Complex Nears Completion in Fresno Foothills. When Will It Open?

Click here to view article

Work appears nearly complete on a new and larger Indian gaming casino complex less than 1,000 feet from the current Table Mountain site in the Fresno County foothills near Millerton Lake.

Construction began on the project to replace the existing casino in 2019.

Barstow Casino and Resort one step closer to becoming a reality

A Barstow casino is one step closer to becoming a reality after council members voted 4-1 to update a service agreement with the Chemehuevi Indian Tribe during Monday night's council meeting.

"Staff had been negotiating with the Chemehuevi Indian Tribe over the placement of a casino and resort within the City since 2004/05, and on November 30th, 2005 former City Council Members adopted the initial Municipal Services Agreement (MSA).

Click here to view article

www.etr.org/ccap

powered by

