

California Casino News

May 30-June 26, 2022

Table Mountain's Brand New Casino Nears Opening. Video Offers a Bird's Eye View

Click here to view article

Table Mountain's new hotel resort and casino in Friant, under construction since 2019, is now on the verge of opening.

While tribal leaders have remained tight lipped on an official date, a promotional video shared on social media last month by the company confirms the casino will open in July.

New Hard Rock Hotel and Casino will bring jobs, revenue to Kern County

Kern County is getting its own Hard Rock Hotel and Casino has been years in the making but to the Tejon Indian Tribe getting Governor Gavin Newsom's approval of the project will lead to something they've been waiting for centuries. With state ratification of the compact, the Tejon Indian Tribe will finally get their first reservation.

According to a letter from Governor Newsom 320 acres of land are within the 763,000-acre reservation that would have been designated to the Tejon Indian Tribe and other signatory tribes if the United States had ratified a treaty with them in 1850..

Click here to view article