

California Casino News

November 18-December 1, 2019

Congratulations to Sycuan casino for being named the 2019 top workplace by the San Diego Union-Tribune!

Congratulations are also due in Southern California to Agua Caliente on breaking ground on their 3rd casino in the Coachella Valley, and in Northern California to The Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Sacramento at Fire Mountain on their their grand opening.

The grand opening of Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Sacramento at Fire Mountain

Click here to view article

Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Sacramento at Fire Mountain is the go-to Northern California destination for the latest in gaming, dining, and entertainment. For the first time, the Enterprise Rancheria Tribe and the Seminole Tribe joined together to bring the Hard Rock at Fire Mountain to life. On October 30, 2019, the $440 million dollar property opened its doors allowing the public to enjoy the extraordinary experience offered inside

Agua Caliente building new Palms Spring-area casino, 10,000-seat arena; Vegas dining heats up

The Agua Caliente Band of Cahuilla Indians is solidifying its status as an economic powerhouse in the Palm Springs area. On Nov. 4, the tribe broke ground on its third casino in the Coachella Valley and is also building a $250 million, 10,000-seat sports and entertainment arena.

Click here to view article

Sycuan Named a 2019 Top Workplace by The San Diego Union-Tribune

Click here to view article

Sycuan Casino Resort announced today that the organization has been named a 2019 Top Workplace by The San Diego Union-Tribune. The annual San Diego Top Workplaces list is based on the results of employee feedback surveys administered by Energage, an employee research and consulting firm.