

California Casino News

November 30 - December 7, 2020

Gingerbread Lane Launches Christmas Season At Soboba Casino Resort

With its official unveiling during Thanksgiving week, Soboba Casino Resort began sharing a special holiday treat with visitors. Along its unique Gingerbread Lane, guests are greeted at every turn with oversized cookie cutouts that boast fun facts about the centerpiece of the display: a 22-foot tall gingerbread house.

Click here to view article

Construction worker dies at Agua Caliente Cathedral City casino

Click here to view article

A construction worker died Monday morning at the recently opened Agua Caliente Cathedral City casino. The fatality occurred on the property around 5:30 a.m. and "we are handling it as just an accident," Cathedral City police Commander Julio Luna said.

Top 10 casino openings and expansions for late fall 2020

Due to another rise in COVID-19 cases throughout the U.S., we are seeing many casinos take necessary steps and precautions. Some are even closing down temporarily again until things are under control and capable of opening back up safely. However, not all doors are closing and even more are planning to open back up.

Here we take a look at the top 10 casino openings and expansions for the late fall season.

Click here to view article