

California Casino News

October 14-20, 2019

Wilton Rancheria the proposed casino in Elk Grove. The tribe is now facing the anti-gambling group Stand Up for California after the current ruling. However, the tribe is moving forward with the casino being built in cooperation with Boyd Gaming.

San Manuel Band of Mission Indians the San Manuel Casino sponsors a stadium in Las Vegas. The Allegiant Stadium will be the new home of the Raiders in 2020. The new stadium will seat 65,000 people, host a variety of events such as UNLV football, international soccer and PAC-12 Championship Game.

Elk Grove Casino Close to Realization; Anti-Gambling Group 'Stand Up for California' Opposes

Click here to view article

Elk Grove casino in California has come across a lot of obstacles recently. The Wilton Rancheria tribe has been making significant efforts to receive approval for the casino project.

Oakland Raiders partner with Indian casino on Las Vegas sponsorship

Las Vegas has no shortage of casinos but the latest sponsor of the new Oakland Raiders stadium is, in fact, a casino from California. San Manuel Casino is the latest sponsor of Allegiant Stadium, the new home of the Raiders come 2020. The casino is owned by the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians, a federally recognized American Indian tribe.

Click here to view article