Rolling Hills Casino opens gaming area expansion, new venues

Rolling Hills Casino & Resort in Corning, California, held Thursday afternoon a grand opening celebration of the expansion of its facility, which now has an increased gaming area by 40% and the addition of conference spaces, as well as the Rock & Brews and Fatburger restaurants.

During Thursday's ceremony, Tribal Chairman Dru Alejandro thanked the tribe, Yates Construction, Dan Clark, General Manager Steve Neely, the casino employees and other parties who took part in the project.
