

California Casino News

September 14-20, 2020

Tribe Sues Calif. Over 'Failed' Gambling Compact Negotiations [sub req]

California Gov. Gavin Newsom has failed to negotiate in good faith with the Bishop Paiute Tribe of central California over its tribal-state gambling compact, the tribe has alleged in California federal court.

Click here to view article

Ninth Circuit hands Jamul tribe a positive ruling over sovereignty

Click here to view article

A Southern California Indian tribe won a favorable ruling in the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals last week that it hopes will end a seven-year-old legal dispute over its designation as a federally recognized tribe with the rights to open a casino on its native land.