

California Casino News

September 9-15, 2019

In this week's casino news, the Hard Rock Hotel & Casino in Northern California, a joint partnership between the Enterprise Rancheria Indian tribe and the Seminole Tribe of Florida, is set to open for business by October 30th.

Also in northern California, Redding Rancheria held their "State of the Tribe" event on September 10th at the Win-River Resort and Casino. During the event, they discussed several new construction projects, their new health and wellness center, and discussed several other contributions to the community.

Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Sacramento at Fire Mountain to open before Halloween

In a press release on Friday, Hard Rock announced a new venue in California is set to launch before Halloween. The Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Sacramento at Fire Mountain will be ready for business by October 30th. The large entertainment venue will officially open just in time for the holiday, located next to the Toyota Amphitheatre in Wheatland, California.

Redding Rancheria hosts "State of the Tribe" at Win River Resort and Casino

On Tuesday, the Redding Rancheria held the "State of the Tribe" event at the Win-River Resort and Casino, where their progress over the past couple of years was reviewed.