

Graton Resort & Casino wants to expand. Here a snapshot of its past development

Click here to view article

Graton Resort & Casino, owned by the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria, is the Bay Area's largest gaming destination and one of the largest private employers in Sonoma County.

Now the tribe is advancing an expansion on its 254 acres outside Rohnert Park that would make the casino resort, opened in 2013, even bigger. Plans call for an additional 200 hotel rooms, a second parking garage, a 3,500-person theater and a rooftop restaurant.

Elk Valley Casino to host grand opening events

Elk Valley Casino has announced the schedule of events to celebrate the long-awaited opening of their new casino property. The festivities will kick off on Friday, April 22, with a ribbon cutting followed by a weekend of events that include cash giveaways, promotions as well as live concerts.

Click here to view article

Redding Rancheria seeks blessing from Supervisors for casino and hotel relocation

Click here to view article

The Redding Rancheria is hoping to get a blessing from Shasta County Supervisors as it seeks to move the Win-River gaming operation and hotel to land it owns along Interstate 5. CEO Tracy Edwards was part of a presentation Tuesday afternoon.

"As for our project, it will include gaming space, a 250-room hotel, plenty of dining options, an event center, conference rooms, a destination resort-style swimming pool, and potentially an outdoor amphitheater and other wonderful amenities," explained Edwards.