

California Casino News

August 30-September 5, 2021

California and Six of Its Tribes Sign New Gaming Compacts

Last Tuesday, August 24, the Governor of California, Gavin Newsom, announced that he had signed new tribal-state gaming compacts with six of the local tribes. According to Newsom himself, the compacts display the concerned bodies' commitment to create and maintain resilient and amicable relations, push for developments in the tribal economy and self-sufficiency, and establish a strong tribal government.

Click here to view article