

California Casino News

February 18-March 3, 2019

In this week's casino news, Southern California, the Soboba Band of Luiseno Indians has reportedly announced that it intends to launch gaming operations inside its new 474,000 sq ft Soboba Casino Resort.

California's new Soboba Casino Resort to open from tomorrow

Click here to view article

In southern California, the Soboba Band of Luiseno Indians has reportedly announced that it intends to launch gaming operations inside its new 474,000 sq ft Soboba Casino Resort from tomorrow.

McAteer: Casinos are just a Band-Aid to solving real issues facing Native Americans

Click here to view article

One of the most fascinating parts to living in Inyo County for eight years was working with five tribal nations. Inyo County, the second largest county in area in the state, is located on the eastern side of the Sierra Nevada and has the highest percentage of Native Americans of any county in the state. Nearly 25 percent of the county's population is from two tribes (Paiute and Shoshone) which occupy five reservations spread throughout Inyo.

Santa Ysabel tribe opening new marijuana dispensary

From an old casino to new marijuana dispensary. The Santa Ysabel tribe is the first tribe in the county to enter the lucrative marijuana business with...

Click here to view article