

California Casino News

March 4-24, 2019

In this week's casinos news, Mike Lopez has been named to California Nation Indian Gaming Association Board.
In Madera County in central California the tribal council of the Picayune Rancheria of Chukchansi Indians released a statement concerning its tribal government offices and other leadership.
In Southern California The Sycuan Casino & Resort is set for its grand opening of the new hotel and casino on Wednesday; March 27th, 2019.

Mike Lopez Named to California Nations Indian Gaming Association Board

Click here to view article

Mike Lopez, a member of the Santa Ynez Band of Chumash Indians' business committee, has been appointed to the California Nations Indian Gaming Association's executive board.

Sycuan Named 2018 Business of the Year by the San Diego East County Chamber of Commerce

Click here to view article

Sycuan announced today that the organization has been named the 2018 Business of the Year for Entertainment and Recreation by the San Diego East County Chamber of Commerce. The SDEC Chamber annually recognizes organizations that exhibit outstanding customer service, maintain a positive reputation and ethics and consistently delivers high-quality services or products.

Dispute breaks out over Chukchansi tribal leadership - again

A standoff is under way outside the tribal council offices for the Picayune Rancheria of Chukchansi Indians, the tribe that operates Chukchansi Casino. The Madera County Sheriff's Office confirms to FOX26 News it had been called to the scene early Monday morning.

Click here to view article