

Stacy Soria, MPA – Keynote Speaker

Stacy Soria has over a decade of broad-based experience in the nonprofit sector. She has provided leadership to numerous organizations in areas of Continuous Quality Improvement, High-Impact HIV Prevention, Veteran Services, Addiction Treatment and Prevention, Homelessness, Workforce Development, Criminal Justice, Project Management and Administration.

Ms. Soria is a Lean Six Sigma Black Belt, Certified HIPAA Privacy and Security Expert, Certified Training and Development Specialist, Prosci Certified Change Practitioner, Recovery Coach, Meyers Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) Practitioner, State Certified Addiction Prevention Professional, and Licensed Addiction Counselor. She's obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Professional Studies in Human Services and holds a Master's of Public Affairs and Administration. She is wrapping up her practicum for a Master's of Science in Addiction Counseling. She is a proud inductee into the National Public Administration Honors Society and a member of the American Counseling Association.

Stacy has managed a multi-agency CDC funded High-Impact Prevention project and currently works as an independent consultant helping various organizations and groups build their capacity. When she is not working to help organizations meet their needs, she is at home in Northeast, Ohio, playing with her seven pets and enjoying a moderate bowl of chips with her favorite spinach dip.
